

"It has been said by one, years ago, that history turns on small hinges, and so do people's lives. Our lives will depend upon the decisions which we make – for decisions determine destiny."

Thomas S. Monson – Longest serving National Board Member for the Boy Scouts of America.

Divine Compass Award
Decisions Determine Destiny
Jamboral 2016
Celebrate God's Creations

Print Name: _____

"It has been said by one, years ago, that history turns on small hinges, and so do people's lives. Our lives will depend upon the decisions which we make – for decisions determine destiny."

Thomas S. Monson – Longest serving National Board Member for the Boy Scouts of America.

Divine Compass Award
Decisions Determine Destiny
Jamboral 2016
Celebrate God's Creations

Print Name: _____

"It has been said by one, years ago, that history turns on small hinges, and so do people's lives. Our lives will depend upon the decisions which we make – for decisions determine destiny."

Thomas S. Monson – Longest serving National Board Member for the Boy Scouts of America.

Divine Compass Award
Decisions Determine Destiny
Jamboral 2016
Celebrate God's Creations

Print Name: _____

"It has been said by one, years ago, that history turns on small hinges, and so do people's lives. Our lives will depend upon the decisions which we make – for decisions determine destiny."

Thomas S. Monson – Longest serving National Board Member for the Boy Scouts of America.

Divine Compass Award
Decisions Determine Destiny
Jamboral 2016
Celebrate God's Creations

Print Name: _____

To earn the divine Compass Award, complete the following requirements:

___1. Discuss with your parent, leader or guardian how decisions made today will influence your life in the future.

___2. Identify three individuals in history or in scripture whose decisions affected their destiny in either a positive or negative way. Share these stories with your group or a friend describing how the decisions you make today will lead to your destiny.

___3. Write a paragraph describing how serving others in your community can determine what kind of person you will become in 10 years.

___4. In the Scout Oath, we promise to "Do our duty to God," discuss with your leader how this commitment might affect your decisions now and, in turn, your future.

To earn the divine Compass Award, complete the following requirements:

___1. Discuss with your parent, leader or guardian how decisions made today will influence your life in the future.

___2. Identify three individuals in history or in scripture whose decisions affected their destiny in either a positive or negative way. Share these stories with your group or a friend describing how the decisions you make today will lead to your destiny.

___3. Write a paragraph describing how serving others in your community can determine what kind of person you will become in 10 years.

___4. In the Scout Oath, we promise to "Do our duty to God," discuss with your leader how this commitment might affect your decisions now and, in turn, your future.

___5. God created this world for us to enjoy. Discuss with your parent or leader, what actions can you take to show Him that you are glad to be in this world.

___6. Discuss with your parent or leader, what are three of God's creations that are among your favorite, and why.

Have your leader or parent initial the requirements that you pass off to them.

Adults can discuss the points with either their spouse, religious leader or another Scout leader.

I have completed the requirements for the Divine Compass Award.

Signed Applicant: _____

Signed Leader: _____

To earn the divine Compass Award, complete the following requirements:

___1. Discuss with your parent, leader or guardian how decisions made today will influence your life in the future.

___2. Identify three individuals in history or in scripture whose decisions affected their destiny in either a positive or negative way. Share these stories with your group or a friend describing how the decisions you make today will lead to your destiny.

___3. Write a paragraph describing how serving others in your community can determine what kind of person you will become in 10 years.

___4. In the Scout Oath, we promise to "Do our duty to God," discuss with your leader how this commitment might affect your decisions now and, in turn, your future.

To earn the divine Compass Award, complete the following requirements:

___1. Discuss with your parent, leader or guardian how decisions made today will influence your life in the future.

___2. Identify three individuals in history or in scripture whose decisions affected their destiny in either a positive or negative way. Share these stories with your group or a friend describing how the decisions you make today will lead to your destiny.

___3. Write a paragraph describing how serving others in your community can determine what kind of person you will become in 10 years.

___4. In the Scout Oath, we promise to "Do our duty to God," discuss with your leader how this commitment might affect your decisions now and, in turn, your future.

___5. God created this world for us to enjoy. Discuss with your parent or leader, what actions can you take to show Him that you are glad to be in this world.

___6. Discuss with your parent or leader, what are three of God's creations that are among your favorite, and why.

Have your leader or parent initial the requirements that you pass off to them.

Adults can discuss the points with either their spouse, religious leader or another Scout leader.

I have completed the requirements for the Divine Compass Award.

Signed Applicant: _____

Signed Leader: _____

___5. God created this world for us to enjoy. Discuss with your parent or leader, what actions can you take to show Him that you are glad to be in this world.

___6. Discuss with your parent or leader, what are three of God's creations that are among your favorite, and why.

Have your leader or parent initial the requirements that you pass off to them.

Adults can discuss the points with either their spouse, religious leader or another Scout leader.

I have completed the requirements for the Divine Compass Award.

Signed Applicant: _____

Signed Leader: _____